2.0 MISCONDUCT

Misconduct is of a degree less serious than that which would warrant immediate suspension from duty for a first offence but which could nevertheless lead to dismissal if persistent. The disciplinary procedure must be followed when dealing with misconduct. Some more serious acts of misconduct might justify omitting the first stage of disciplinary procedures by issuing a final warning in the first instance, if there is no satisfactory explanation. Only when it can be shown that the warnings have not been heeded will misconduct lead to action being taken which will lead to an employee's dismissal. The list of examples below is not intended to be exclusive or exhaustive and offences of a similar gravity will receive the same treatment.

2.1 Absenteeism and lateness, for example:

- (a) failure to remain at the place of work during normal working hours without permission or sufficient cause for absence;
- (b) frequent failure to attend work punctually;
- (c) failure to comply with the sickness absence reporting procedure;

2.2 Dishonesty - petty wrongs, for example:

- (a) making unauthorised private telephone calls and/or sending personal mail at the School's expense;
- (b) failure to report any loss and/or damage to any property issued to or by the employee in connection with his/her employment.
- (c) using the School's telephone, computer, fax, email or internet for unauthorised personal purposes.

2.3 Neglect of duty, for example:

- (a) failure to adopt safe working practices/use protective equipment where required by law or management;
- (b) negligent use of School property in such a way as is likely to cause serious damage or loss;
- (c) failure to discharge without sufficient cause the obligations which statute or the contract of employment places on the employee
- (d) insubordination;
- (e) failure to exercise proper control or supervision of students.

2.4 Abusive behaviour/offensive language which arises directly out of or in connection with work and which is directed at students, colleagues, Governors, Trustees, contractors, volunteers or members of the public.

2.5 Bullying harassment or victimisation of students, other employees, volunteers, Governors/Trustees or contractors in the course of duty.
